CHRIST, OUR WAY AND OUR LIFE: A PRESENTATION OF THE THEOLOGY OF ARCHIMANDRITE SOPHRONY (9781878997746) $22.95 by Archimandrite Zacharias.

"The central axis of his (Fr. Sophrony's) living theology is his deep investigation into the meaning of the personal or hypostatic principle in Divine Being and in humanity, and his description of certain features of humanity which determine man's final realization as far as this is possible within the limits of earthly life. This theology is presented as an account of man's personal experience of divine light. St. Silouan and his disciple and biographer Archimandrite Sophrony deserve a place in the history of the Church. The present study aims to establish the spiritual experience of these two men as a subject worthy of consideration in the academic circles of contemporary theology." —Archimandrite Zacharias. Soft cover. 275 pages.

Divine Liturgy (9781878997791) $22.95

In the Footsteps of a Saint (9781878997760) $5.95

This is the first English translation of the life of St. Seraphim along with a short collection of his spiritual instructions, as they appear in the book entitled The Community of the Sarov Hermitage and the Memorable Monks that Struggled Therein, published in Russian in 1881 by the Sarov Hermitage. This was the fourth edition of this work an expansion and revision of earlier versions. Although this life and this collection of spiritual instructions are both quite brief, they make quite clear the path to holiness that St. Seraphim followed, and they reveal the core of his teachings to monastics, and to all those who seek to tread upon his path.

KNOWLEDGE OF GOD ~ ANCIENT SPIRITUALITY OF THE CHRISTIAN EAST (9781878997838) $14.99

by Dr Harry Boosalis

The present study comprises two introductory lectures in Orthodox theology. Written in a reader-friendly style with a deliberate attempt at presenting the spiritual themes of Orthodox theology in a clear and simple way, this brief book will benefit anyone interested in Eastern Christian spirituality and the study of Orthodox theology. Based on Holy Scripture and patristic teaching, this short study refers to the writings of a wide variety of Orthodox theologians, especially those of Eastern European backgrounds. This book is also original in that it preserves its teaching purpose by maintaining a practical approach as well as an appropriate level of language. 104 pages.

Lenten Triodion (SB1335) $32.00

This book forms a sequel to The Festal Menaion. It contains the texts for the ten Sundays before Pascha, together with the complete services for the first week of Great Lent, for Holy Week, and for certain other days. The translation is designed for liturgical use, and is suited for singing and reading aloud. Many canons in the Triodion contain only three canticles or odes; hence the title "Triodion." Translated from the original Greek by Mother Mary and Archimandrite Kallistos Ware. Hardcover. 699 pages.

LENTEN TRIODION SUPPLEMENT (9781878997777) $25.95

This indispensable volume includes all the supplementary texts that are needed for the weekday services of the Lenten season, including set readings and prokeimena as well as hymnography for the daily Matins, Hours, and Presanctified Liturgies.

Marriage As A Path To Holiness ~ Lives of Married Saints (LS194) $27.95 by David and Mary Ford.

This book describes the lives of over 130 married saints. In the introduction, the authors present a summary of the consensus understanding of marriage in the Orthodox Tradition, using many quotations from various Saints, which are brought together for the first time. 398 pages.

O FULL OF GRACE GLORY TO THEE (9780982250204) $11.95

by Igumen Gregory (Zaiens).

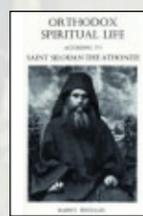

This publication gives to the reader a magnificent portrayal of the holy Theotokos and Ever-Virgin Mary. It is a most impressive biographical sketch of the one, unique person who became the pure and holy vessel through whom God entered into His creation to make it eternally divine. The author, following a chronological path from the birth of the holy Mother of God through her earthly life, and using historic sources and services, bridges the three hundred year period wherein there was no New Testament and proceeds down through the centuries to the present day. Whether deliberate or not, the author brings to our attention the fact that we cannot recognize the uninterrupted continuity of the Church without the person of the Ever-Virgin Mary, our mother. Consequently, the reader of this book will realize the significance of the divinely inspired words coming from her when she said, "Henceforth, all generations will call me blessed." In this publication, we see in her the love of God, the God of extreme humility who recognized Himself in the total humility of the holy Theotokos." —Metropolitan Isaiah of Denver. Introduction by Bishop Basil (Essey). Preface by Archpriest Chad Hatfield. Soft cover. 97 pages.

NEW!

Orthodox Spiritual Life According to Saint Silouan the Athonite (SP382) $16.95

by Dr Harry Boosalis

The present study is an attempt at a systematic presentation of the teaching of St. Silouan on Orthodox spiritual life. The goal is to illustrate his importance for today. His teaching is compared with the writings of the Church Fathers, showing how it is based on traditional patristic sources, as well as presenting its more original attributes. Special attention is given to his teaching on the acquisition of the grace of the Holy Spirit, spiritual warfare, the significance of suffering, humility, love for all mankind and prayer for the salvation of the entire world. Softcover. 204 pages.

Orthodox Spirituality (9781878997661) $25.95

by Dumitru Staniloae ~ A practical guide for the faithful and a definitive manual for the scholar. Underlying the publication in English of Fr. Dumitru Staniloae's extensive study of Orthodox spirituality, originally written in Romanian and intended primarily as a text for Orthodox theological schools, are several substantive issues that are not, perhaps, immediately evident, but which, nonetheless, require some comment. It is important that the reader properly understand these issues as they are particularly refracted in the Orthodox perspective. Soft cover. 398 pages.

Panikhida (SB1382) $10.00

This pocket-size booklet contains the text of the service for those who have fallen asleep in the Lord. Arranged for three-part singing. Adapted and compiled by Rev. Igor Soroka. Softcover. 87 pages.

Passions and Virtues According to Saint Gregory Palamas (9781878997753) $16.95

The present study investigates the teachings of Palamas on passions and virtues. The first chapter discusses the definition of passion as the movement of the soul contrary to nature. With the analysis of the different passions, which are "the multifaceted connections with the earthly things of this life difficult to break," their causes, progress and forms will also be discussed. The second chapter addresses the phenomenology of passions, where their appearance and influence on the tripartite soul is examined, as well as is the role of the devil as the instigator behind the passions. The third chapter deals with repentance and mourning as the initial preconditions for purification of the passions. The fourth chapter addresses the meaning of virtue as 'the middle way' of the spiritual life. In the fifth chapter, a series of the 'divine passions' are presented, which are crowned and perfected in theosis and lasting communion with God. Softcover. 210 pages.

The Living Witness of the Holy Mountain: Contemporary Voices from Mount Athos (SP350) $24.95

From as early as the ninth century, Mount Athos has been a monastic center and a spiritual beacon of the Orthodox world. As the present collection of essays, sermons and narratives shows, the significance of the work of the monks who come to Athos to devote themselves to God continues undiminished, as does the vitality of their contribution to the spiritual life of Orthodoxy worldwide. Softcover. 310 pages.

Time and Man (DT465) $14.95

Time is offered to man as a context for his dealings and encounters with his neighbor and with God. Time is also to be seen as the place where the love of God is revealed. Within time, man shows, or fails to show, love for his neighbor. This book discusses such issues as the problem of time, space and time, Christ and time, and the transfiguration of time and liturgical time - among others. Softcover. 113 pages.

Women and Men in the Early Church: The Full Views of St. John Chrysostom (PA359) $19.95

This book begins with a biographical sketch of St. John Chrysostom's life, and then compares the thinking of major Western and Eastern Church Fathers before and during Chrysostom's time on issues relating to human sexuality. The rest of the book is devoted to discussing Chrysostom's theology of sexuality and marriage, his attitudes towards men and women in general, his theological understanding of the ontological relationship between man and woman in general, and his views on how this relationship is to be worked out in daily life, especially in the realms of the family, the society at large, and the Church. Dr. David Ford is Assistant Professor of Church History at St. Tikhon's Orthodox Seminary. Softcover. 246 pages.

MUSIC BOOKS:

Orthodox Two Part Music ~ Vespers (CM2001) $45.00
Orthodox Two Part Music ~ The Divine Liturgy (CM2000) $25.00

These particular adaptations are designed to be relatively simple(r), beautiful, full sounding (only two parts needed,) and relatively easy to learn. Two part Orthodox music is based primarily on Znamenny Chant and is given as an offering to the Church in America with the hope that it will transcend jurisdictional boundaries. Nevertheless, there are many different kinds of chants from different Orthodox traditions, all of which share a common life and vision in Christ. It is hoped that people within the Church will find this material useful and that it will be another step in the process of establishing an organic expression of Orthodox Liturgical Life in America. Many of them are not strict note for note translations but rather a synthesis, blending and melding elements that are common to several Orthodox chant traditions. These arrangements can be sung by all men (a few on the 2nd voice, bass clef, and the rest (most) on the melody,) all women (same arrangement,) or mixed choir (70% of the men and women singing the melody, the other group (30%) singing the second part in the bass clef.) In any case, if these melodies must be sung by a choir of one, it will hopefully not be a bore, a challenge, or a depressing event. 198 Pages. Spiral bound for easy use.

Sacred Treasures I (025041110921) $18.00

The choral music of the Russian Orthodox Church is designed to set the soul soaring beyond earthly cares. Sung by the finest Russian and Bulgarian choirs, this extraordinary collection of transcendent prayers and hymns embraces a timeless tradition of faith and devotion. Lush harmonies float in space, angelic high voices pour down from heaven, deep bas voices arise from the center of the earth, and the great bronze bells toll with awesome grandeur. For sheer beauty, there is little to match it anywhere in the world.

Sacred Treasures II ~ Choral Masterworks from the Sistine Chapel (025041111225) $18.00

100% ALL-NATURAL BEESWAX CANDLES

Hand-dipped by the Monks of the Oldest Orthodox Monastery in North America!

Beautifully Made High-Quality Candles for Liturgical or Private Use!

PLACE YOUR ORDER TODAY!

Saint Tikhon's Monastery is pleased to announce that we have recently finished construction of our candle shop, and have begun production of our Beeswax candles. Our all-natural 100% Beeswax Candles burn clean, without any smoke or dripping. Since there is no smoke, they will not darken nor damage the iconography in your church, as do candles made from paraffin wax. Your purchase of our candles will go to support the Orthodox Monastery of Saint Tikhon of Zadonsk, while at the same time offering the finest things up to God. Thank you for your continued prayers and support!

(Because our candles are hand-dipped, sizes and candles per pound may vary slightly)

Candle Sizes	Burn Time	Candles per Pound
